WNBA CONNECTIONS

There aren't many women's basketball teams that can tout nine-year WNBA veterans among its alumni. Florida State can count a couple during Sue Semrau's tenure. In addition to current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff, who spent nine years in the WNBA, Roneeka Hodges just completed her ninth season in the American professional league.

The 2005 Florida State graduate began her career with the Houston Comets (2005-08) before spending time with the Minnesota Lynx (2009), San Antonio Silver Stars (2010-11), the Indiana Fever (2012) and the Tulsa Shock (2012-13).

Hodges, a 5-11 guard, was traded to the Shock halfway through the 2012 season, and started 16 games for the squad while averaging 10.5 ppg.

"I've been lucky," Hodges said. "I've had eight great seasons, and I'm very grateful for the opportunity. I'm thankful for the opportunity Coach Sue and FSU gave me. (Being the star at FSU) got me seen and got me known. It sparked my career."

Hodges transferred to the Seminoles from LSU in 2004. Her one season with the Noles was a memorable one. Hodges captured All-ACC First Team honors and led the Seminoles to a 24-8 record and a second-round appearance in the NCAA Tournament. She averaged 19.2 points per game and set a school record for scoring in a game that still stands, dropping 39 points in a thrilling win over Maryland.

"My time at Florida State was short, but it was amazing," Hodges said. "That season was great in general. We got to the tournament for the first time in awhile We started building something special at Florida State."

Hodges was selected 15th overall in the WNBA Draft right after her season completed. She gives credit to Seminoles' head coach Sue Semrau and Florida State for helping develop her game and gain the maturity that comes with a professional basketball career.

"At FSU I became more of an all-around player and I learned a lot about the game," she said. "I love Coach Sue and FSU. Coach Sue and the staff were great people. Florida State got me prepared for adversity and it made me stronger mentally."

Hodges has also carved out a career overseas, playing for a European club nearly every WNBA offseason. In 2011, Hodges averaged 15.5 points per game for Istanbul Universitesi om Turkey. She began the 2012 season with Perfumerias Avenida in Spain.

"It's great," Hodges said. "I've been able to experience so many different cultures and learn so many life lessons playing in different countries. I've taken a lot from my career over there. I've had a lot of unique experiences."

Hodges also spent a season earlier in her career playing with Wyckoff in the Canary Islands in Spain. "Brooke and I played one year in Spain together," she said. "That was one of my best years – in the Canary Islands."

Hodges has no complaints about her profession and feels lucky to have a career she enjoys - whether its in the United States or overseas.

"I've grown a lot from playing overseas," she said. "It's been great getting to experience the world, and on top of it - getting paid to do something you love. It's a different lifestyle, but it's great to make a living playing basketball."

Hodges is part of a long line of FSU players who have played professionally in recent years. In the past year, recent center Cierra Bravard earned a spot on the Seattle Storm, while Leonor Rodriguez and Chelsea Davis each are playing overseas in Spain.

In her case, Hodges said she doesn't plan on retiring from the game she loves anytime soon.

FLORIDA STATE BASKETBALL MILESTONES

Sue Semrau became the 10th head coach in Florida State women's basketball history in 1997-98 and quickly took the program to new heights, guiding the Seminoles to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 10 years in 2001 before leading FSU to an unprecedented seven-straight NCAA Tournaments from 2005-11. The three-time ACC Coach of the Year (2001, 2005, 2009) helped guide the United States U18 and U19 teams to gold medals in 2010 and 2011, respectively. AN ALL-AMERICAN TRADITION

Numerous Seminoles have garnered All-America honors through the years, beginning with Sue Galkantas in 1983 and most recently by Cierra Bravard in 2011. Other notable FSU All-Americans include: Bev Burnett (1988), Wanda Burns (1991), Tia Paschal (1993) and Brooke Wyckoff (2001).

2013 FOREIGN TOUR PRESENTED BY NIKE

THE TRIP OF A LIFETIME

The 2013-14 Florida State women's basketball team didn't need to worry about team bonding on the first official day of practice this season. That's because this current group of 'Noles got a head start in the best way possible - experiencing other parts of the world on a foreign tour experience presented by Nike.

In August 2013, the Seminoles traveled to both Senegal and Italy to not only compete against other national and pro teams, but to experience the culture of other countries and spread their influence of basketball beyond the realm of Tallahassee. The 'Noles did everything from teaching basketball to the youth of Senegal, shopping in Italy, visiting the African safari and much more to create an unforgettable cultural experience.

"The trip was everything we had anticipated," head coach Sue Semrau said. "It was educational, challenging, a great bonding experience, and certainly we're blessed to have a company like Nike put us in that situation where we can have that kind of education."

Indeed, it will be a trip that all of the current players, coaches and support staff will remember forever.

"The safari was pretty cool, Semrau added. "You're up close and personal with a zebra and a giraffe and rhino, so it was really a cool thing. But what I think was even better was the opportunity we had through Nike to do a clinic for the young boys and girls in that community. They're so hungry - you set up a defensive slide station and they're just busting it."

2013-14 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

SEASON PREVIEW

Fresh off an exciting season in 2012-13, the Florida State women's basketball team returns to the hardwood this year having lost some experienced pieces yet having retained and replenished a newer group filled with an immeasurable amount of talent.

With five key seniors graduating last season that helped guide the Seminoles to a secondround NCAA Tournament appearance, Florida State's lone returning starter is a pretty good one to build around. Senior forward Natasha Howard, a 6-foot-3 do-it-all player, enters her final year as a 'Nole boasting 26 career-doubles. Known for being a highly-skilled player who can also do the dirty work, Howard's double-double total is second among active ACC players

The Toledo, Ohio, native and former McDonald's All-American finished fourth on the team in scoring last season, averaging 12.7 points while pulling down 7.5 boards. Luckily for Howard, she won't have to do things alone as she teams with a talented cast of performers ready to lead Florida State to its ninth NCAA Tournament in the past 10 seasons

Playing a big role in last year's team that finished 23-10 overall and 11-7 in the ACC was speedy point guard Yashira "Cheetah" Delgado, who has high expectations this season entering her senior year. At 5-foot-2, Delgado is a blur on the court who can push the pace and find spot-up shooters on the drive. The Kissimmee, Fla., native split floor general duties last season with current student assistant Morgan Toles and led the 'Noles with 148 assists.

Sitting out last year due to NCAA transfer rules, redshirt sophomore guard Morgan Jones gets her opportunity to break through with the 'Noles this season after practicing and learning the intricacies of head coach Sue Semrau's schematics in 2012-13. The Lake Mary, Fla., native has already earned the reputation as a highly-versatile player after capturing honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in her freshman year at Northwestern, where she averaged nearly 14 points, six rebounds, 3.3 assists and shot 75.2 percent from the charity stripe. Jones was named to the coaches' fiveplayer ACC Newcomer Watch List on Oct. 23, signifying the respect that other league coaches have for her.

Heading into the season, the immense turnover on the roster that is highlighted by eight newcomers has not fazed the rest of the conference. At the annual ACC Women's Basketball Media Day, Florida State was selected to finish fifth in the league by the Blue Ribbon Panel and sixth by the league's coaches. Even with the presence of reigning Final Four contender Notre Dame and the infusion of new basketball talent in Syracuse and Pitt, Florida State has built itself into a respectable basketball program that continues to make waves with their overall play and recruiting prowess off the court.

Looking to provide a major boost for the Seminoles this season is a highly-skilled freshmen class. While the game of basketball has started to evolve into a game by the guards, Florida State still believes success starts from the inside-out as it introduces freshman center Kai James to the forefront. The native of Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., was rated the No. 3 center in the 2013 signing class by ESPN HoopGurlz and also played in the 2013 McDonald's All-American Game. James became a double-double machine at Dwyer High School. The combination of her and Howard on the inside gives Florida State a strong chance to hold the edge on the glass in several games.

In fact, Florida State can say that entering its first game of the season against UNC Greensboro on Nov. 8, it will boast three McDonald's All-Americans James, Jones in and Howard.

Freshman guard Brittany Brown is a skilled shooter who can fill up the bucket in a hurry. The Fort Walton Beach, Fla., native was actually a finalist for the McDonald's All-American team and averaged 18.6 points per game for Choctawhatchee High. Perhaps even more Brown has importantly, proven to be a clutch shooter with the game on the line, finishing with two buzzer-beaters in last year's high school state tournament.

The Florida State faithful hope to watch her get on a hot streak and have her game translate seamlessly from high school to college.

Redshirt junior forward Lauren Coleman figures to be another important piece for the Seminoles this season, being one of just three returnees who played in 2012-13. The Lawrenceville, Ga., native's hard-working ways earned her time in the rotation as last year progressed, providing valuable minutes heading into tournament time.

Two other freshmen compose FSU's 2013 class, including forward Ivey Slaughter. The Macon, Ga., native was ranked as the No. 21 forward in her signing class and brings a tremendous amount of athleticism to the floor. Slaughter expects to compete for playing time as she has shown an ability to drive the lane and put pressure on the defense in the post.

FSU's other freshman, Gabrielle Bevillard, is forced to miss the 2013-14 season due to an ACL injury sustained in the pre-season. The 6-foot-3 forward from Bishop, Ga., was another do-it-all player recruited by the 'Noles, showing the ability to be physical in the post and get loose balls. Bevillard will work to come back from her knee injury even stronger and factor prominently into the 2014-15 year.

Semrau and her staff are also looking toward Iowa State transfer guard Emiah Bingley, who is expected to become eligible once the fall semester is completed. Although the combo guard will have to miss the early portion of the season, she will look to provide big minutes and make a contribution as the season heats up during ACC play. Due to NCAA transfer rules, senior guard

Seniors Cheetah Delgado (L) and Natasha Howard (R) are ready to lead the way for Florida State this year.

Maegan Conwright and junior guard Shakena Richardson will sit out the year and become eligible beginning in the 2014-15 season. Conwright started 20 games in her three years at Kentucky and played in six NCAA Tournament games. Richardson also logged valuable minutes or a member of Puttors and looks to propare the as a member of Rutgers and looks to prepare the current set of 'Noles' adequately in practice this year while making strides in her own game.

The 'Noles' once again have a daunting schedule ahead of them, which is expected of any program competing in the ACC. Florida State faces 11 opponents who played in the 2013 NCAA Tournament, including newcomer Notre Dame at home and fellow Final Four participant Louisville on the road. An arduous 16-game conference schedule includes home matches against preseason ACC champion pick Duke (Jan. 23), Notre Dame (Feb. 6) and North Carolina (Jan. 12)

Included in the non-conference portion of home games is the hosting of Michigan State on Dec. 4 as part of the annual Big Ten/ACC Challenge. All 15 Florida State women's hoops games at home will be televised/streamed on ESPNU, an ACC Regional Sports Network or through ESPN3.com. On the road, FSU plays at Cincinnati (Nov.

13), Florida (Nov. 21) and Louisville (Nov. 24) and heads to the Long Beach Classic on Dec. 20-21. In conference play, the 'Noles battle Miami (Jan. 9), Maryland (Feb. 20) and a slew of other ACC opponents on the road

Last year, Yashira "Cheetah" Delgado totaled 148 assists as Florida State's backup point guard. That total was the sixth-highest mark in FSU history and also gives her the leading total among any returning guard in the ACC heading into 2013-14.

Already making her presence felt as a dribble-weaving, penetrate and pass guard, Delgado carried more lofty marks in her assist totals last season. She led Florida State in assists 16 times last year, helping run one of the most efficient offensive units in the nation in 2012-13.

COACHING STAFF COACH SUE SEMRA

• 17TH SEASON

- THREE-TIME ACC COACH OF THE YEAR
- FSU'S ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH
- WBCA PRESIDENT
- ACC REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS (2009-10)
 SEVEN STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES (2005-11)
- 2010 ELITE EIGHT
- THREE STRAIGHT NCAA NO. 3 SEEDS (2009-10-11)

Entering her 17th season as the head women's basketball coach at Florida State, Sue Semrau, a threetime winner of the ACC Coach of the Year award and Florida State's all-time leader in wins, has earned a reputation as a coach that not only keeps her team in the national rankings by leading her players to victory but also one that helps foster the personal and professional growth of the student-athletes.

"Coach Sue" has guided the Seminoles to nine NCAA Tournaments, including a 2010 Elite Eight appearance, won a pair of gold medals with USA Basketball and seen 27 student-athletes earn academic allconference honors. Over the last five years, Florida State has averaged over 23 wins per season and had 12 players sign professional contracts either in the WNBA or with a European club team. Eight Seminoles have been selected in the WNBA Draft in the last 10 years.

Semrau is so respected among her peers in the coaching community that she was named president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association this summer after serving as the vice president since 2010. Semrau's two-year term will last until the end of the 2014-15 season.

This Past Season

During the 2012-13 season, Florida State had a league-best and a school-record three All-ACC First Team selections, advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round and tallied its eighth 20-win season with Semrau at the helm.

Senior guards Leonor Rodriguez (14.9 points per game) and Alexa Deluzio (13.8 ppg) led an FSU offense that had five players averaging double figures at the end of the regular season and finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and field goal percentage. The Seminoles' 74.8 points per game average and .453 shooting percentage were their highest marks in over 20 years.

Deluzio and Rodriguez joined junior Natasha Howard on the All-ACC First Team, while senior forward Chasity Clayton collected ACC Sixth Player of the Year honors. Florida State tallied a 23-10 record and placed fourth in the ACC.

At the end of the season, Semrau was honored with the Kay Yow Heart of a Coach Award from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes at the WBCA Convention in New Orleans.

Molding True Student-Athletes

As successful as Florida State has been on the court, Semrau's commitment to community service is just as important to her program's identity. The past four years, Semrau has partnered the Seminoles with Samaritan's Feet, a non-profit organization dedicated to changing lives through shoe distributions around the world. Semrau annually will coach a game barefoot in an effort to raise money, and the Seminoles took a break from the 2010 Junkanoo Jam in the Bahamas to give back on Thanksgiving.

Additionally, the Seminoles have performed a variety of services throughout the Tallahassee area and have been known to extend a helping hand when on the road, making visits to the Boys and Girls Club at the Coalition for the Homeless in Orlando and elementary schools in Harlem, West Chester and Wadsworth, Ohio and Martinsville, Ind., as well as the Duke Hospital in Durham, N.C.

In August 2013, Semrau and the Seminoles held a basketball clinic for youth in Dakar, Senegal in addition to visiting an orphanage during the team's 2013 Foreign Tour.

These efforts have molded countless Seminoles into superstars in the game of life following their hoops careers. Current assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff (Class of 2001) and Christian Hunnicutt (Class of 2011) each earned prestigious ACC Postgraduate Scholarships, while Vanessa Fuchs (Class of 2001) served as Interim Athletics Director at Florida State and is currently the Seminoles' Senior Women's Administrator.

Recent Success

The 2009-10 season served as the perfect example of just how strong Florida State's women's basketball program has become under Semrau. The Seminoles captured their second consecutive regular-season ACC Co-Championship and made it all the way to the Elite Eight of the annual NCAA Tournament as a program-best No. 3 seed for the second straight season. Along the way, FSU set the school record for most wins in a season with 29, most conference triumphs ever with 12 and highest national ranking ever at No. 9.

After the season was complete, star forward Jacinta Monroe was taken sixth overall in the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics; a draft slot that was the highest ever for an FSU women's basketball player.

During a 24-8 campaign in 2010-11, the Seminoles extended their NCAA Tournament streak to seven consecutive years, nabbing another No. 3 seed. Along the way, forward Cierra Bravard nabbed honorable mention All-America honors and teamed with point guard Courtney Ward to capture All-ACC accolades.

Changed Culture

Semrau's 295 career win total (273 recognized by the NCAA) with the Seminoles doubles the second-most victories by an FSU coach (Marynell Meadors, 132), and her tenure has accounted for nine of FSU's 12 all-time NCAA Tournament appearances.

Semrau basically built the Seminoles from scratch, as she inherited a program coming off of a 5-22 record in 1996-97 and hadn't reached double figures in wins in four years.

By her fourth year, Semrau had completely turned the program around, capturing a 19-12 record and the first NCAA Tournament appearance in a decade. The 2000-01 season served as the jumpstart for unprecedented success.

FSU had only four 20-win seasons before Semrau guided the Noles to six 20-win seasons over a seven-year stretch beginning in 2004-05.

A Respected and Seasoned Coach

Prior to coming to Florida State, Semrau served three years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Wisconsin under Jane Albright. While in Madison, she contributed to the Badgers' three-straight winning seasons and two NCAA Tournament appearances, including the program's first ever back-to-back 20-win seasons. Semrau first joined Albright at Northern Illinois in 1991 where she assisted in leading NIU to three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Before her hiring at Northern Illinois, Semrau served as head women's basketball coach and assistant athletic director at Occidental College in Los Angeles for four years where she compiled a 51-47 overall record. She also coached soccer for two seasons and was responsible for the administrative duties of fundraising and promotions at the Division III institution.

Semrau also worked as the public relations and promotions director for the L.A. Heat professional soccer team from 1986-87, and as the public relations director for the Seattle Storm soccer team in the previous year.

COACHING STAFF

It's no coincidence that the best 10-year stretch in FSU women's basketball history has coincided with Lance White's tenure as an assistant coach with the Seminoles.

During his 10 years with the Garnet and Gold, FSU has a 67 percent winning percentage and has averaged nearly 22 wins per season. In 2012-13, the Seminoles advanced to their eighth NCAA Tournament and picked up their seventh 20-victory season since White came on board in 2003.

Additionally, Florida State captured back-to-back regular season ACC titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. The Noles captured seven consecutive NCAA Tournament berths from 2005-11.

White was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2012-13 season and his game planning and strategy took the Garnet and Gold offense to heights it hadn't seen in over 20 years.

Florida State finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and field goal percentage. The Seminoles' 74.8 points per game average and .453 shooting percentage were their highest marks since the 1991-92 and 1992-93 seasons, respectively. Senior guards Alexa Deluzio and Leonor Rodriguez and junior forward Natasha Howard gave FSU a school-record and an ACC-leading three All-ACC First Team selections, while senior forward Chasity Clayton captured ACC Sixth Player of the Year honors. The Seminoles finished fourth in the league - their seventh top-four finish with White.

Considered by head coach Sue Semrau to be one of the rising stars of the coaching profession when she hired him in 2003, White has helped FSU reach new levels of success and brought an infectious energy to the program.

White has directed the FSU defense and offense during his tenure as well as been one of the country's top recruiters. In 2012, CollegeInsider.com named him one of the nation's Top 20 assistant coaches in the country.

The defensive coordinator for most of his tenure, White added the Seminoles' offense to his direction in 2011. He continues to hold responsibilities with recruiting, film and opponent breakdown in addition to assisting with camps each summer.

Florida State has experienced two of its greatest defensive seasons under White's tutelage the past few years as the team set a school record during the 2008-09 campaign by limiting opponents to 61.1 points per game. The Seminoles then broke that record in 2009-10 with a season that saw them hold opponents to just 60.8 points per contest. Last season, the Noles outscored opponents by 9.8 points per game.

Since White's arrival, many Seminoles have captured unprecedented individual success. Five players have been picked in the WNBA Draft, seven Seminoles have earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and FSU has nabbed 27 all-conference awards. In addition to the four All-ACC honorees in 2012-13, Christian Hunnicutt was named the ACC Defensive Player of the Year in 2011 and Jacinta Monroe was selected No. 6 by the Washington Wizards in the 2010 WNBA Draft.

White was well prepared when he arrived at Florida State. He came from Texas Tech where he spent 10 seasons, including seven years as an assistant coach, with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp.

Some of White's responsibilities at Texas Tech included individual workouts, scouting reports, perimeter and post player development and all aspects of recruiting, including mail correspondence and recruiting visits. White also served as the academic liaison for the women's basketball team, directing study hall and monitoring academic progress while also handling player relations.

During White's time in Lubbock, Texas Tech won three Big 12 Championships and advanced to seven-straight NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet Sixteen and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 National Championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach.

While in Lubbock, Texas, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen. Among the players he influenced were National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA Player of the Year Sheryl Swoopes and also Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a Master's Degree in sports administration in August of 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January of 1993. As a high school athlete in Spur, he was a three-time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to his football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991.

White is an NCAA certified recruiter and member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. He is married to the former Melanie Smith, who is a professor at Florida A&M University. The Whites are the proud parents of Quentin and Vivian.

His enthusiasm and energy were felt immediately during the 2012-13 season, as he helped the Seminoles capture a 23-10 record, a fourth-place finish in the ACC and an eighth NCAA Tournament berth in the last nine years. With Hughey's assistance, the Seminoles tallied a school-record and league-best three players on the All-ACC First Team, as senior guard Alexa Deluzio and Leo Rodriguez and junior forward Natasha Howard collected honors from the conference office.

Hughey was instrumental in the development of Howard, as well as senior post Chelsea Davis, who signed a professional contract with top Spanish club Gran Canaria for the 2013-14 season.

BROOKE WYCKOFF

ASSISTANT COACH Third Season Florida State '01

She sparked the rise of the Florida State women's basketball program as a standout player on the court from 1997 to 2001. Ten years later, Brooke Wyckoff returned to the Seminoles - this time on the bench, joining Sue Semrau's revamped staff for the 2011-12 season.

Two years later the results speak for themselves. Last season, FSU posted a 23-10 record, finished fourth in the ACC and advanced to its eighth NCAA Tournament in nine years. Along the way, Wyckoff, a star forward during her playing career, helped the Seminoles land a school-record and a conferencebest three players on the All-ACC First Team, as senior guards Alexa Deluzio and Leo Rodriguez and junior forward Natasha Howard collected honors from the conference office.

Senior forward Chasity Clayton also nabbed ACC Sixth Player of the Year accolades, as Florida State finished in the top 10 nationally in both scoring and field goal percentage. FSU's 74.8 points per game average and .453 shooting percentage were its highest marks in 20 years.

Without a doubt, Wyckoff was one of the greatest Seminoles ever to wear the Garnet and Gold on the hardwood before playing nine seasons in the WNBA. Wyckoff's experience at the professional level has given the Seminoles a rare commodily on the bench.

Along with the immediate credibility her hoops career provides, Wyckoff possesses an amiable personality that has made her an immediate hit on the recruiting trail. Her efforts led the Seminoles to sign one of the nation's top incoming recruiting classes in 2013. Led by four-star McDoanld's All-America center Kai James, the Noles' 2013 signing class features three Top 100 players and ranks as the nation's No. 7 class by All-Star Girls Report and No. 11 by ESPNW Hoop-Gurlz.

Wyckoff also serves as the Seminoles' program's liaison with the FSU academic support staff in addition to her on-court duties.

In her first year back at FSU, Wyckoff, a star versatile forward during her career, helped tutor all-conference forwards Cierra Bravard and Howard. Bravard later signed a professional contract with the WNBA's San Antonio SilverStars and played the 2013 WNBA season with the Seattle Storm. Howard led the ACC in double-doubles in 2012.

A native of West Chester, Ohio, the talented post/wing was one of the top high school players in the country before signing a National Letter of Intent with FSU in 1997 in what was Semrau's first season in Tallahassee.

In her freshman year, Wyckoff made an immediate impact as she set a single-season record at the time with 80 blocks on her way to earning ACC All-Freshman Team honors. Conference accolades continued to roll in during her next three years with a pair of All-ACC Third Team selections (1999 and 2000) and finally an All-ACC First Team honor as a senior in 2001.

Wyckoff's 1,350 career points is still the 11th-most in school history and her 804 rebounds rank sixth. She ranks No. 2 at FSU in career blocks with 209. She averaged 12.4 ppg and 7.4 rpg while starting all 109 games she played in her career.

Perhaps most importantly, Wyckoff was the cornerstone of the Seminoles' first winning season in nine years as the team posted a 19-12 record in 2001 and finished fourth in the ACC. That season culminated in the school's first trip to the NCAA Tournament in 10 years and All-America honors for Wyckoff, which was the first national accolade for an FSU women's basketball player since 1993. She capped her career by scoring 14.6 ppg and pulling down 6.6 rpg that final season.

In addition to boasting the honor of being just one of four former 'Noles to have their jerseys' retired, Wyckoff was also an outstanding performer in the classroom. She is the only Seminole to ever earn four All-ACC Academic Women's Basketball Team honors as well as four nods to the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

In 2001, she earned an ACC Postgraduate scholarship and was named to the ACC Legends Class of 2010. In 2002, she was named to the 51-member ACC 50th Anniversary Women's Basketball Team.

She also played with the USA Women's Basketball Select Team for three consecutive summers.

In 2011, Wyckoff was inducted into the Butler County Sports Hall of Fame as well as the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame and the Greater Cincinnati Basketball Hall of Fame.

Following her senior year, Wyckoff was selected by the Orlando Miracle in the second round of the WNBA Draft. She spent two seasons in Orlando before the team moved to Connecticut where she played another three seasons with the Sun.

She was then selected by the Chicago Sky in the 2006 WNBA Expansion draft and played for that franchise until 2009.

During her nine-year WNBA career, Wyckoff appeared in 242 games.

After concluding her professional basketball career, Wyckoff served as an assistant girls basketball coach at Lakota East High School in Cincinnati, Ohio.

FLORIDA STATE - INDIVIDUAL GAME HIGHS

IN MEMORY

Matthew Schmauch, an Assistant Director of Academic Support who worked with the women's basketball program for four seasons, was instrumental in the academic success of FSU student-athletes. His influence went beyond the classroom. He was an ambassador, a mentor, a friend, a big brother, a fan — truly a shining example of where hard work and determination can take you. This award, established in his memory, is given annually to the women's basketball player who exemplifies these characteristics of leadership.

The Florida State Athletics Department lost a dear member of its Seminole family on June 13, 2003. Matt Schmauch, 29, an Assistant Director for the Athletic Academic Support Program at Florida State, died from anaphylaxis due to an allergic reaction to nuts while representing FSU at the N4A convention in St. Louis, Mo.

A native of Allen Park, Mich., Schmauch had been a valuable member of the athletic academic support staff since 1996. A glowing role model in the classroom, Schmauch earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Florida State in 1995 and went on to receive a master's degree in athletic administration from FSU in 1996.

In 2003-04, the Florida State women's basketball program created a special award in honor of Schmauch.

IN MEMORY

Daughter, sister, classmate, teammate, role model, friend and Seminole. Ronalda Pierce meant so much to so many people. Although with us a short time, Ronalda's memory will forever be etched in the hearts of the Seminole family. Ronalda represented courage, heart, determination, growth and joy. It was these characteristics that allowed her to blossom into the person that was cherished by all who knew her. The recipient of this award exemplifies these same qualities of perseverance and heart.

On June 8, 2004, the Florida State women's basketball program lost a special member of its family with the sudden death of Ronalda Pierce, a 6-5 post player from Ashburn, Ga. In 2004-05, the players wore #55 on their shoes in her honor.

The Seminoles paid tribute to Ronalda by celebrating the time, although too short, that they had with her. In 2005, an award was established in her memory.

While Ronalda Pierce remains on the minds and in the hearts of those associated with Florida State women's basketball, the 2006-07 season had an even greater meaning as it would have represented Ronalda's senior season. Members of her recruiting class, Nikki Anthony, Shante Williams and Alicia Gladden, proudly hold up their hands signifying the No. 55; Ronalda's jersey

ALICIA "ICE" GLADDEN

The Florida State women's basketball family suffered an immeasurable loss on April 19, 2013, when former standout guard Alicia "Ice" Gladden passed away at the age of 27 following a tragic car accident. Nicknamed "Ice" because of her smooth style of play on the court, Nicknamed "Ice" because of her smooth style of play on the court, Gladden was an enormous part of Florida State's program-building trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2007. The native of Orange Park, Fla., who always showcased a beautiful left-handed touch was known as someone who made you smile and carried an infectious personality.

CAREER ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Going into the 2013-14 season, Gladden is the only Seminole to capture ACC All-Defensive Team honors three times.
- Holds the Florida State career record for steals (275) as well as the singleseason record (101) in 2004-05.
- Led the 'Noles in scoring in her junior and senior seasons, culminating by averaging 13.5 points and leading FSU to its first-ever NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in 2007.
- Two-Time All-ACC Third Team performer and an All-ACC Honorable Mention player who became the 20th member of Florida State's 1,000 point club, finishing with 1,403 career points which is currently 10th all-time.

HALL OF FAME

The Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame enjoys a rich tradition. Florida State is fortunate to enjoy an athletics program that reflects the integrity achieved by an academic institution with over 150 years of success.

There are 289 members of the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame. The first and largest class was inducted in 1977 and there has been a class inducted every fall since with the exception of 1996 when Florida State spent the year celebrating its 50th Anniversary of athletics.

Five former women's basketball greats, Sue Galkantas, Tia Paschal, Wanda Burns-Jackson, Brooke Wyckoff and Bev Burnett are members of the Florida State Athletics Hall of Fame.

SUE GALKANTAS HALL OF FAME 1989

Florida State may never forget the scoring power of Sue Galkantas, who with an amazing 2,323 career points, is the most prolific scorer in Seminole basketball history. That total is the most points ever scored by a player, male or female — in Florida State history.

By the time Galkantas graduated in 1984, her name was listed in nearly every statistical category in the FSU records book. Averaging 19.4 points per game in her career — a mark that still ranks number one on the career lists — was just a glimpse of the impact that she had as a Seminole. In her rookie year, she broke the FSU freshman scoring record and was named a freshman All-American in numerous publications. By her sophomore year, Galkantas had already scored her 1,000th point and established herself as one of the top 20 scorers in the nation. In her junior season, she led FSU to a 24-6 record and to its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Overall, she scored in double figures in 115 of 120 games and still holds six career and single-season records. In 1989, Galkantas also became the first female FSU athlete to have her number retired.

TIA PASCHAL HALL OF FAME 1999

The Florida State women's basketball program enjoyed its greatest success during the fouryear career of Tia Paschal, who lettered for the Seminoles from 1989 to 1993.

A forward from Thomson, Ga., Paschal was an immediate contributor for Florida State and was a three-year starter after averaging 20 minutes of play as a rookie. She ended her career averaging 19.4 points and 7.4 rebounds as a senior while earning first team All-ACC honors and second team All-America honors by the American Women's Sports Federation. During her career, she helped lead the Seminoles to two consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1989-90 and 1990-91 as well as a Metro Conference championship in the 1990-91 season.

Paschal's versatility made her a weapon in every facet of the game which is evident by the records she still holds at Florida State. She holds the records free throws made (14) in a game and is second for steals in a career (269). Paschal is also among FSU's top 10 in five season and six career records and ranks second all-time in scoring with 1,662 points.

Honors came in abundance for Paschal throughout her career. After redshirting the 1988-89 season with a knee injury, Paschal took the conference by storm as a freshman, earning Metro Conference All-Rookie Team honors. She earned Metro All-Tournament Team honors two seasons and was twice named the conference Player of the Week.

Paschal continued playing the game that she loves professionally. Since her graduation in criminology in 1993, Paschal's professional overseas experience has included stops in Germany, Sweden and Spain. She also played one season with the Charlotte Sting of the WNBA.

HALL OF FAME

WANDA BURNS HALL OF FAME 2006

Wanda Burns overcame adversity to become a successful women's basketball player at Florida State. One of Marynell Meadors first recruits, Burns was a highly-touted 5-8 guard out of Macon, Georgia.

Though she carried a 3.0 GPA in high school, her SAT scores were below the required score to meet the new NCAA Prop 48 rule and she had to sit out her freshman season. Burns used the year to hit the books and get acclimated to campus life.

She hit the court in 1988-89 with something to prove. She averaged 11 points a game and led the team with 92 assists, helping FSU to its first winning season since 1983.

She electrified the team in 1989-90 and sparked FSU to a 21-9 record and to the NCAA Tournament. Burns set an FSU record for free throw percentage and led the team in scoring, three pointers and steals.

In 1990-91, her final season, Burns was named Metro Conference Player of the Week, set a single game record with 10 steals in a game and led the team in three-point shooting. FSU enjoyed one of its most successful seasons with a record of 25-7. Burns led the Metro Conference in scoring at 18.5 points per game and scored double figures in 38 consecutive games. She was named Metro Conference Tournament MVP and Player of the Year and also earned Hanes Her BROOKE WYCKOFF Way NCAA Woman of the Year and Second Team All-American honors.

Burns still ranks among FSU's top 10 in four career and 11 single-season statistical categories.

HALL OF FAME 2011

Florida State women's basketball assistant coach Brooke Wyckoff solidified her place among the all-time great 'Noles in September 2011 with her induction into the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame

Wyckoff, who was a star forward for head coach Sue Semrau's first hoops teams from 1997-2001. became the fourth women's basketball player to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on Sept. 2 at a ceremony at the University Center Club, joining Sue Galkantas (Class of 1989), Tia Paschal (Class of 1999) and Wanda Burns (Class of 2006).

"Getting inducted into Florida State's Hall of Fame is the biggest honor I have ever received," Wyckoff said. "It's amazing. It's surreal and an honor to be among the amazing athletes that are in it. It was a great opportunity for me to reflect on my career here, and to thank everybody publicly made it so special."

Wyckoff and the rest of her illustrious class - Tony Brown, Sam Cowart, Marshall McDougall, Stephen Parry, Chris Weinke and Andy Miller - were also honored on Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Cambell Stadium during FSU football's 2011 season-opening football game versus Louisiana-Monroe.

The latest addition to Semrau's coaching staff, Wyckoff was hired by her alma mater this summer. Wyckoff spent nine years in the WNBA, playing for the Orlando Miracle, Connecticut Sun and the Chicago Sky.

Wyckoff was one of the top high school players in the country but chose to leave West Chester, Ohio to play for Sue Semrau and Florida State. She made an immediate impact setting an FSU record with 80 blocked shots as a freshman in 1997

She went on to earn All-ACC honors as a sophomore and junior and capped her senior season (2001) with first team All-ACC honors as well as All-America honors. She was also FSU's only four-time Academic All-ACC performer and received an ACC postgraduate scholarship.

Wyckoff scored 1,350 points over her storied FSU career and finished as the second best shot blocker the Seminoles have ever produced with 209. She grabbed 804 career rebounds and was also ranked among FSU's all-time Top 10.

HALL OF FAME

BEV BURNETT HALL OF FAME 2012

Tallahassee native Bev Burnett rounded out her Florida State career as one of the most prolific scorers in school history. A four-year letterwinner from 1985-89, Burnett finished her career with 1,509 points, a mark that ranks fifth in FSU history. She also ranks sixth all-time in scoring average at 15.6 points per game.

A team captain, the 5-9 forward earned All-Metro Conference First Team honors in both 1988 and 1989 and led the Seminoles in scoring in each of those seasons with averages of 21.3 and 15.9 points per game, respectively. Her 21.3 points per game average in 1988 still ranks as the second highest single-season mark in Florida State women's basketball history.

Burnett is a six-time member of the FSU 30-point club and her 34 points vs. both Florida A&M (1986) and Virginia Tech (1988) and ranks sixth for most points scored in a game by a Seminole. She was also named a third team All-American by the American Women's Sports Federation in 1988 and has numerous conference player of the week honors to her credit.

She became the fifth women's basketball player inducted into the FSU Hall of Fame.

2013-14 FSU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL ON THE RADIO AT WNLS-AM 1270

JONATHAN SCHILLACE

Florida State fans can follow the Seminoles whether on the road or at home as WNLS-AM (1270) of Tallahassee will carry every FSU women's basketball game this season.

Every game will also be broadcast over the Internet by accessing www.seminoles.com, the official athletics website of Florida State University.

Jonathan Schillace is in his first season as the play-by-play broadcaster. However, Schillace is no stranger to the program; in 2011, he called preseason games and in 2012 called 10 home games as well as the San Juan Shootout in Puerto Rico. He is the co-host of the "Sue Semrau TV Show" and enters his first year as the coordinating producer for the Seminole IMG Sports Network football broadcasts, which includes football games and the Jimbo Fisher call-in show every Wednesday night throughout football season.

This year, Schillace was promoted to Assistant Director in the Digital Media Department. Schillace produces video content for the university's official athletics website, Seminoles.com. He is the creative mind behind the wildly-popular "Schillace in Your Face" online videos. He is a recent graduate of Florida State University where he earned his undergraduate degree in business management in the spring of 2012 and a Master's in sport management in the summer of 2013. In addition to providing play-by-play for the FSU women's basketball team, Schillace has also done color commentary for FSU baseball, play-by-play for FSU soccer, and ESPN3 play-by-play for Seminole softball.

Prior to his work with Seminoles.com, Schillace was an anchor with WFSU, a reporter/producer with FSU Headlines and interned with WTSP, the CBS affiliate in the Tampa Bay area.

Joining Schillace will be color analyst Melissa Bruner. Bruner is the women's basketball Director of Basketball Operations and is in her seventh season providing radio and TV analysis for the Seminoles.
